

Territorial Daughters of Colorado

Did your ancestors settle in Colorado before statehood — August 1st, 1876? If so, you could be eligible to become a member of the Territorial Daughters of Colorado. This organization's charter is to explore and research pioneer history. The TDC commits itself to preserving Colorado's heritage through benevolent deeds.

Founded on February 10, 1910, the Territorial Daughters of Colorado is chartered to perpetuate the memories and traditions of the pioneers who laid the foundation for the State of Colorado; to place and locate markers at such places in the state as may be determined to be of historical interest; to participate in public ceremonies for the preservation of pioneer history; and to make gifts or loans of money or property for charitable, educational, religious or literary purposes.

Membership Requirements

Members of the Territorial Daughters of Colorado must be 18 years or older, who are direct descendants, by blood or adoption, of individuals who were residents of the territory that later became the State of Colorado (residents before Aug. 1, 1876).

Territorial Daughters Colorado Chapters

Denver Chapter was organized in 1910. In order to regionalize meetings, Southern Chapter was created in 1940; Greeley Centennial in 1976; and Western Chapter in 1980. In addition to chapter meetings, an annual general membership meeting is conducted at locations throughout Colorado.

TDC Contact Information

TDC State Website: <https://www.territorialdaughtersofco.org/>

Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/TerritorialDaughtersofColorado>

Twitter: @TDofColorado

Instagram: <https://www.instagram.com/territorialdaughters/>

Applications, meeting schedules, and chapter news available on the website.